Eligibility Requirements

To be considered, applicants must:

- 1) Be accepted into a CEA program.
- 2) Meet the requirements for the scholarship to which they are applying.
- 3) Be currently enrolled as an undergraduate at a U.S. college or university.
- 4) Have a minimum 3.0 cumulative GPA, unless otherwise specified.
- 5) Adhere to the TEFDISSF Code of Conduct. TEFDISSF reserves the right to revoke a scholarship if its recipient fails to adhere to its Code of Conduct.

Please note: Students can only receive one scholarship per academic year program.

Application Procedure

All pieces of the scholarship application must be submitted together otherwise it will be considered an incomplete application and will not be considered.

These include:

- 1) Submit a completed scholarship application for the scholarship to which they are applying.
- 2) Write and send a 400-500 word essay suited to each scholarship for which they are applying.
- 3) An unofficial transcript must accompany the application.

Deadlines

Application materials must be postmarked by the appropriate date to be considered for a scholarship.

Application for a fall Semester or academic year scholarships are due April 15.

Applications for spring semester scholarship are due October 15.

Applications for summer scholarship are due February 15.

Selection Procedure

Students should apply for only one scholarship. Candidates who meet the scholarship criteria and program requirements will have their essays judged by an independent selection committee.

Essays are evaluated based on the quality of content, style, and grammar. Decisions will not be based on whether the committee agrees with the student's opinion.

Incomplete applications, those who do not meet minimum qualifications, or those who do not follow the formatting guidelines will not be considered. If an insufficient number of qualified candidates apply in any given category, CEA reserves the right to allocate less than the maximum amount of scholarships for that category. The decision of the selection committee is final and not subject to appeal. Scholarship winners will be notified by phone, email, or mail approximately 45 days after each scholarship deadline.
